JUDGEMENT (John 5 : 24-29)

JUDGEMENT (John 5 : 24-29)

Every action has its own reaction, and that every good or bad deed has its own impacts and results. Please note every good or bad deeds of human beings have its present and future judgement effects.

“...It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgement” (Heb. 9:27). The Bible represents God has ruler of Men, law giver, and final Judge (James 4:12). Sometimes God is the Judge (Heb. 12:23), Sometimes Christ (2 Tim. 4:8). God will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained (Acts 17:31). The judgement seat of God (Rom. 14: 10) and the judgment seat of Christ (2 Cor. 5:10) are interchangeable terms.

Now we can see

- I. It is God's Judgment
- II. God's Judgment is Righteous One
- III. God's Final Judgment

I. It is God's Judgment

The basic principle of judgment is justice of God (Genesis 18:25; Rom. 3:3,4). In the Old Testament if anyone commit sin, he would be judged by God with instantaneous punishment. No one can escape from God's punishment and that the Lord would expect “Repent from Sin” and “Restitution for Sin”

“Live in sin is to be live in death; and those who live and die thus shall die eternally.”

“Death is the county whose every Christless should live, the man who know not God lives a dying life or living death”

A. Judgment of God for Adam and Eve's Sin

In the Old Testament, it is important to note if any one who disobeyed God and His laws, he would be expelled from the presence of God. God said, “It is not good that the man should be alone (Gen. 2:18), therefore He made a woman (Gen. 2: 22) to be a help to him. At the inducement of the serpent, the woman (Eve) persuaded Adam to eat from the fruit of the tree which he had been commanded by God NOT to touch.

As a result, Adam and Eve were expelled from the garden of Eden (Gen. 3:23, 24). It is evident until this time Adam had a close communion and conversation with God.

It is the judgment of God were Adam and Eve were punished by expulsion from the garden and subjection to the future, lot of obtaining his livelihood in painful toil and in the sweat of his face, since the ground to which now he would return at his death, was cursed and bring forth thorn bush and thistles. Because of one man (Adam) sin, we were all made sinners.

B. Judgment of God for King David's Sin

When King David looked at the beautiful woman, a sinful desire entered in his mind. He allowed his mind in what he saw knowing the fact that Bathsheba the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite (2 Samuel 11:11). Uriah refused to sleep with Bathsheba because he preferred duty before pleasure. He was a leading warrior one among the 37 (2 Samuel 23:39). David rewarded Uriah with murder. David covered his sin of conspiracy, deceived the nation and thus committed sin against God because King David not rip temptation in the bud.

I have to point out if anyone commits sin it completely displeases God. The first consequence of sin, soon after it was predicted. The Lord God struck the son of Bathsheba bore to David with a sickness. On the 7th day, the child died due to sickness and that was the judgment of God for his deed.

The second consequence in 2nd Samuel Chapter 3; Absalom, the son of David had a beautiful sister Tamar. Amnon the son of David loved Tamar very much, but it was a physical and incestuous love. Because of the advice of wicked friend Jonadab, Amnon spoiled Tamar wantonly.

This is the judgment of God for king David's sin. Please remember even though God had forgiveness for the sins of David for what he had committed but the impact of sin would go all through his life.

II. God's Judgment is Righteous One

The dead shall hear His voice

3 Kinds of death

1. Natural Death: Separation of body and soul.
2. Spiritual Death: Separation of God and soul.
3. Eternal Death: Separation of body and soul from God in the other world.

Natural Life: Union of the soul and body

Spiritual Life: Union of God and soul by faith and love.

Eternal Life: Communion of body and soul with God by holiness in the realm of bliss.

A. The Hour is Coming

When all those sleep in the dust shall awake at the voice of the Son of Man and come to JUDGMENT for, HE GIVETH LIFE TO THE DEAD (John 5:27,28,29).

B. The Hour is Coming

Those who die on NATURAL DEATH shall hear THE VOICE OF THE SIN OF GOD. It is likely that our Lord had not as yet raise any from the DEAD.

Here he refers to those whom He intend to raise.

C. The Hour is Coming

Many who are dead in trespass and SIN shall hear the voice of the Son of God, believe and receive spiritual life through Him.

DO NOT MARVEL AT THIS: "Because I am a man for greater things, then these shall be done by me. He who addresses you, though disguises under a form of Man, shall appear in the great day to be the JUDGE of Quick and DEAD.

By the Almighty power, He shall raise all the dead. By His unerring wisdom and Justice shall adjudge the wicked to Hell and the righteous to Heaven.

“Who knowing the judgment of God; that they which commit such things are worthy of death not only do the same but have pleasure in them...” (Romans 1:32).

“And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments” (Revelation 16:7).

“And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war” (Revelation 19:11).

III. God's Final Judgment

As God the son, Jesus Christ will be the judge of the final Judgement (John 5:22). All unbelievers, thieves, murders, liars, backbiters, adulterers and slanderers will stand before Jesus Christ at the great white throne, and they will be punished according to the works they have done.

The Bible says that unbelievers are currently storing up wrath against themselves (Romans 2:6) and that God will repay each person according to what they have done (Believers will be judged separately at the judgment seat of Christ, a judgment of examination and reward).

At the great white throne, the fate of the unsaved will be in the hands of Omniscient God who will judge everyone according to his or her soul's condition and the works done in the body.

For now, our fate is in our hands. Then end of soul's journey will either be in eternal Heaven or in an eternal hell (Matthew 25: 46). We must choose our destination by either accepting or rejecting the sacrifice of Christ on our behalf. We make that choice before our physical lives come to an end. After we die, we no longer have a choice.

Finally, my beloved, “Everyone who has ever lived will face God someday.”

“Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of Him to whom we must give account” (Hebrews 4:13).

Please note my beloved, “The last judgment will occur after resurrection of the dead, and our “mortal body” will come to life again and at the last judgement, Christ will come in His glory, and all the angels with him, and in his presence the truth of each one's deeds will be laid bare”

“Are you ready to meet with Him right now?” Amen

- Rev. John Rajah

EDITORIAL

Dear Brothers and Sisters, beloved in the Lord, Independence Day greetings to you in the name of Jesus Christ!

“Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land” (Psalm 85:9).

The people of our Indian nation, once enslaved under British rule and living in extreme poverty, were given hope when our Father of the Nation, Gandhiji, read the Sermon on the Mount of Jesus Christ. Deeply moved by it, he was inspired with the confidence that freedom could be attained through non-violence. Together with many fellow patriots, he fought in a just and righteous manner and brought freedom to our nation on August 15, 1947. Through the tireless efforts of capable leaders, our country has progressed and is advancing in every field in a way that amazes many other nations. We are now functioning as a free nation. Let us praise the Lord for this. It is the duty of every Indian to use the freedom we have received in a meaningful and constructive way.

The blessing of freedom should never be used in ways that lead to destruction or the downfall of society. At the same time, there are still crores of people who live in poverty, without access to even basic necessities or proper food. It is the responsibility of the government to improve their living conditions and meet their essential needs. Moreover, people who are trapped in various forms of bondage must be set free. Many are enslaved by social evils such as alcohol, drug addiction, smoking, online gambling, sorcery, witchcraft, partying, and prostitution—habits that destroy lives, families, and society. Deliverance is needed from such destructive practices. We all must pray fervently for this, as it will lay the foundation for the upliftment of our nation. The Bible reveals that many people have been delivered from different kinds of bondage through Jesus Christ. Let us look at a few examples.

While Jesus Christ was preaching inside a house, some men brought a paralyzed man on a bed, looking for a way to place him before Jesus. Because of the large crowd, they couldn't bring the paralyzed man through the door. So they removed part of the roof and lowered him, along with his bed, into the house from above. Seeing not the paralyzed man but the faith of those who lowered him, Jesus healed him. Many people around us are like this paralyzed man—spiritually inactive and lifeless. Let us strive to bring them to the Lord through the Word of God and through intercessory prayer. Then, the Lord will save them because of our faith.

One of the disciples who was with Jesus Christ, named Thomas, came to the land of India and proclaimed the Gospel. He built churches in Kerala, Tamil Nadu, and Kanyakumari, preached the Gospel about Jesus in Chennai, and died as a martyr. As a result, many came to understand and accept the love of Jesus. Following this, foreign missionaries came to India, preached the Gospel, translated and distributed the Bible, opened schools, built hospitals, and undertook many important developmental activities that paved the way for civilization. A large number of foreign missionaries came to Tamil Nadu, dedicated their entire family lives to the Tamil people, and died here. As a result of their efforts, today in India—especially in Tamil Nadu—there is remarkable progress and prominence in all fields such as schools, colleges, industries, hospitals, roads, police services, and employment opportunities.

At present, this progress has further increased, and under the good governance of the Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu, school-going children are being provided with food, uniforms, textbooks, laptops, bicycles, and various other benefits. This stands as evidence that the Tamil people are truly blessed. As grateful people, we must remember the sacrificial lives of our missionaries who sowed the seeds for many of these blessings. Let us do good to others, love others as we love ourselves, repay evil with good, and demonstrate through our actions the teachings of Jesus Christ. By doing so, let us help our nation live in peace and grow to become a leading country. Let us pray for this!

On the 2nd of June last month, a memorial prayer meeting was held at the IBT office in remembrance of the 12th death anniversary of the IBT Founder, Rev. Prof. S. Panneer Selvam.

This gathering included IBT representatives from Coimbatore, promotional workers, and IBT office staff. Prayers were offered in gratitude for the many results of his tireless labour, along with several specific prayer requests. On the 8th of the same month, during the Sunday morning worship service at the CSI Church in Thalavaipuram, Erode IBT promotional staff Bro. Rajan led the Praise and Worship. IBT Secretary Bro. Varamaniraj explained the IBT ministry, and Pastor. Deva Aasirvatham from Erode delivered the Word of God. IBT expresses its sincere thanks to the Pastor, Secretary, Treasurer of the church, and all the church members who gave the opportunity and offered contributions.

On the 14th of June, at CSI St. Luke's Church in Kothagiri, the audio device of the New Testament, Psalms, and Proverbs in the Badaga language was dedicated and released by IBT President Mr. Jabez Selwyn. These devices were distributed to Badaga pastors. The event was attended by IBT's Treasurer, Field Director, several representatives from Coimbatore and Tirupur, the Founder-Director of WCOI in Bangalore, the Badaga Bible translator, Badaga church pastors, and a large gathering of Badaga people. Let us pray with gratitude to the Lord who protected and blessed us in the past seven months of this year, asking Him to guide and bless us in the remaining five months as well!

In His service

FIELD NEWS

Translator: Sister Latha Ramachandrapa

Language: Bhovi

Mission Field: Haveri (Karnataka)

Greetings in the sweet name of Jesus Christ!

From May 9th to 14th, I participated in the translation checking work held at the Bapanpalli Children's Home in the state of Odisha. During the session, Mrs. Girija explained the remaining tasks to be done in the Book of Psalms. She instructed us to complete the following: included the name of the author (King David), the names of the musical instruments used by him, and the footnotes. After returning home from the session, I completed these tasks. All the necessary work has been completed for Psalms 1 to 150. Next, the checking work will focus on Psalms and Proverbs. Due to the rain, the New Testament books could not be distributed.

Kindly pray for my translation work and for my children's education.

Promotional Staff: Bro. Paul Jayasudhan

Mission Field: Trichy (Tamil Nadu)

By the grace of the Lord, I was able to carry out the promotional ministry throughout the Trichy region last month. Due to the intense heat and sudden rains, it was difficult to reach some areas. However, the Lord strengthened me. I continued to pray enthusiastically for each supporter. The Lord answered my prayers last month for marriages, children, physical health, and financial obstacles in some families. The Lord granted healing to Mr. Peter. The Lord gave health to Mr. Isaac. The Lord healed Mrs. Sukumari. Mr. Paul Stephen received healing from the Lord. Mrs. Lilly was healed by the Lord. Mr. Christy experienced a miracle from the Lord.

Each supporter continues to support with enthusiasm. The Lord has also opened doors for marriage matters. I am meeting with each church committee member and seeking permission to conduct promotional meetings. I am informing supporters about the completed translation projects and requesting them to pray.

I continue to pray for the expansion of this ministry. I kindly ask you to pray for me and my family as well.

The Lord will fulfil His work.

SPIRITUAL TITBITS

1. "First obey and then complain" says an Army slogan. "First obey and then, you will have nothing to complain" whispers the Holy Spirit. How true it is!

".....Master we have toiled all the night and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net. And when they have this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake" (Luke 5:5-6)

2. Prayer is like eating. Can another one eat for you? Yet, many Christians expect others to pray on behalf of them, when they themselves neither obey God's command nor pray for themselves. Simon the sorcerer is an example of this.

"Repent therefore of thy wickedness and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity." "Then answered Simon pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me." (Acts 8:22-24)

3. Olden time pharisees crucified Jesus Christ outside the city of Jerusalem. Modern time Pharisees crucify him right inside the Church. Dear Christian leader, do you think you can wash off your hands? Impossible!

".....he took water and washed his hands before the multitude saying. I am innocent of the blood of this just person, see ye to it." (Matt 27:24)

4. Prayer is no substitute for obedience. Prayer without obeying his commands is an abomination in the sight of God, says the scripture. Obey dear brother, lest your prayer also become an abomination before God.

"He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination." (Prov: 28:9)

5. "When it comes to money matters, all religions are the same" remarked a notorious infidel, mockingly. Are you any different my Christian friend?

For the love of money is the root of all evil, which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through many sorrows. But thou O man of God, flee from these things....." (I Tim 5:10-11)

6. God hath once commanded His prophet to speak to the 'dry-bones' in the valley. But He hath never asked the 'dry-bones' to speak either to the fellow dry-bones or to the prophets, on His behalf.

"But unto the wicked, God says what hast thou to declare my statutes, or thou shouldst take my covenant in thy mouth?" (Psa 50:16)

7. Prayer is the very breath of a Christian. That is why we are commanded to pray without ceasing, lest we die spiritually.

Pray without ceasing." (1 Thess 5:17)

8. God does not ask you to do a thing because you are capable of doing it, but because, He is capable of enabling you to do it, by pouring out His grace, if you are humble and yielded.

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me" (Phil 4:13)

9. Pride, like jealousy cannot survive crucifixion. Are we really crucified?

"And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts." (Gal 5:24)

10. Many professional rescuers have lost their lives in the process of saving others from drowning, just because they were not watchful about themselves. Dear Soul-winner, this can happen to you and me if we are not very watchful.

"What is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his Soul?" (Matt: 16:26)

11. "Many people dig their graves with their own teeth" commented someone. Do you know over-eating is a sin?

"And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares." (Luke 21:34)

12. In a Christ-rejecting wicked world, it is easier to die for Christ, than to live for him as a true witness.

".....I die daily" (1 Cor 15:31)

13. Be honest dear preacher, from where did you get your last Sunday's sermon? From your library or from above?

"For I received of the Lord that which also delivered unto you I have delivered unto you....." (1 Cor 11:23)

PRAY AND PRAISE!

1. On the 14th of June, as planned, the dedication and release ceremony of the audio devices containing the Badaga language recordings of the New Testament, Psalms, and Proverbs took place. Though there was heavy rain and a Red Alert warning on that day, praise the Lord who heard everyone's prayers. He graciously withheld the rain in the area around the CSI St. Luke's Church in Kotagiri until the event was over. Please pray that the 281 audio devices given to the translator will be distributed to the right people, and that those who receive them will use them daily and grow in the Lord.
2. Praise God for His grace in enabling IBT promotional meetings to be conducted in the month of June at two churches in Tirupur and one church in Thalavaipuram, and in the month of July at three churches in Mettur Dam. Pray that in the coming months, IBT will receive opportunities to introduce IBT in churches where it has not yet been introduced, and that readers of the Saththiya Vaarthai magazine will assist in this effort.
3. From the 4th to the 23rd of this month, translators of the Mirgan, Kalahandia, Deshia (Odisha), and Bhojpuri (U.P.) languages will be coming to the IBT centre in Coimbatore for Old Testament translation work and checking. Additionally, the Bundeli language translator from Madhya Pradesh will be coming for New Testament, Psalms, and Proverbs' translation and checking. Rev. Dr. Subramani from BSI, Bengaluru, will also be coming to conduct the checking of the Bundeli language work. Please pray for their safe travel and that the work in each of their respective languages will be completed swiftly during their stay here.
4. On June 12th, a tragic accident occurred when an Air India flight from Ahmedabad to London crashed into the hostel building of a local medical college just minutes after takeoff. The incident resulted in the death of all 241 people on board, along with 25 medical college students doctors and others. This heartbreaking event shocked not only our nation but people around the world. Please pray that the Lord will grant comfort and peace to the grieving families who have lost their loved ones, and for the healing of those who were injured.
